Experiencing Growth Through Obedience

Deuteronomy 28:1-7

John 8:31 reads, "Jesus said to the people who believed in him, "You are truly my disciples if you remain faithful to my teachings." (NLT) This verse reveals what the Master desires to see from his followers. Obeying the commands from the Lord should be prioritized and practiced by 21st Century Christians both in and out of church. There are manifold blessings for all believers who seek to live their lives by the commands from the Word of God. This lesson is designed to share potential outcomes of experiencing growth through obedience.

Breakdown of Deuteronomy Chapter 28

1. The Responsibilities from the Nation of Israel Verse 1
2. The Positivities for the Nation of Israel Verses 2-14
