How Believers Can Live Out God's Word

Jeremiah 36:1-10

Psalm 119:9 reads, "How can a young person stay on the path of purity? By living according to your word." (NIV) This verse reveals practical advice on the best way for an individual to live a life pleasing to the Lord. The true mark of any believer's spiritual maturity is how well they obey the commands from God. In order for this to take place, the Bible must become the standard of living for every Christian. This lesson is designed to share how believers can live out God's Word.

Verses 11-14

"When Micaiah son of Gemariah and grandson of Shaphan heard the messages from the Lord, 12) he went down to the secretary's room in the palace where the administrative officials were meeting. Elishama the secretary was there, along with Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Acbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials. 13) When Micaiah told them about the messages Baruch was reading to the people, 14) the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah, grandson of Shelemiah and great-grandson of Cushi, to ask Baruch to come and read the messages to them, too. So Baruch took the scroll and went to them." (NLT)

3. Believers can live for God by Protecting His Word.

Verses 18-20

"So Baruch explained, "Jeremiah dictated them, and I wrote them down in ink, word for word, on this scroll." 19) "You and Jeremiah should both hide," the officials told Baruch. "Don't tell anyone where you are!" 20) Then the officials left the scroll for safekeeping
