Nehemiah 6:7-9

Title
Strength To Keep It Moving

1. Being strengthened by God can lead to _____ for you.

Verses 10-13

“A few days later I went to visit Shemaiah (son of Delaiah, who was the son of Mehetabel), for he said he was receiving a message from God. “Let us hide in the Temple and bolt the door,” he exclaimed, “for they are coming tonight to kill you.” 11) But I replied, “Should I, the governor, run away from danger? And if I go into the Temple, not being a priest, I would forfeit my life. No, I won’t do it!” 12) Then I realized that God had not spoken to him, but Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him 13) to scare me and make me sin by fleeing to the Temple; and then they would be able to accuse me.” (TLB)

2. Being strengthened by God can lead to _____ for you.

Verse 14

“O my God,” I prayed, “don’t forget all the evil of Tobiah, Sanballat, Noadiah the prophetess, and all the other prophets who have tried to discourage me.” (TLB)
