What Life Teaches You About Money

II Kings 20:12-17

Proverbs 6:6 reads, “Go watch the ants, you lazy person. Watch what they do and be wise.” (NCV) This verse challenges a specific group of people to observe the characteristics of particular insects. God is able to use whatever is at His disposal to teach valuable lessons to humankind. No person, regardless of their age or stage, is beyond learning something new in life. This lesson is designed to share vital lessons life will teach you about money.

II Kings 20:13-15

“Hezekiah received the envoys and showed them all that was in his storehouses—the silver, the gold, the spices and the fine olive oil—his armory and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them. 14) Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked, “What did those men say, and where did they come from?” “From a distant land,” Hezekiah replied. “They came from Babylon.” 15) The prophet asked, “What did they see in your palace?” “They saw everything in my palace,” Hezekiah said. “There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them.” (NIV)

2. Life will teach you that money can be _____ .

Matthew 27:4-6

“I have sinned,” he declared, “for I have betrayed an innocent man.” “What do we care?” they retorted. “That’s your problem.” 5) Then Judas threw the silver coins down in the Temple and went out and hanged himself. 6) The leading priests picked up the coins. “It wouldn’t be right to put this money in the Temple treasury,” they said, “since it was payment for murder.” (NLT)
