Lesson I

Introduction To The Life of Paul

Most Bible readers believe that the greatest New Testament character is Jesus Christ. If Jesus is first, who is second? Many believers would give that role to the Apostle Paul. This is the same person who referred to himself as the chief sinner. (I Timothy 1:15).

Without the Apostle Paul, half of the New Testament would not have been written. Thirteen of the twenty-seven books of the New Testament were authored by him. Fourteen if you credit Paul with the writing of the book of Hebrews. This lesson is designed to share some basic information about the life of Paul

In this lesson, you will discover:

Lesson II

The Growth and Development of Paul

At the end of Lesson One, you saw the particulars that led to the salvation of Paul. Before Paul's salvation, he was highly committed to hurting Christians. However, after his salvation, Paul became committed to helping himself and other Christians.

Much is written in the book of Acts which charts Paul's progress as a believer. It is possible to miss his progression if you fail to follow his steps right after his conversion. This study is designed to share how Paul grew and developed in his relationship with God before his first missionary journey.

In this lesson, you will discover:

1. Paul's mission
2. Paul's maturity
3. Paul's movements

Lesson VI

The Writings Of Paul

Twenty one of the twenty-seven New Testament books are called “epistles.” What is an epistle? An epistle is a letter that was written to churches or to individuals that later turned into Bible books. Thirteen of the twenty-one epistles were written by the Apostle Paul.

The majority of Paul’s writings took place during or after his second and third missionary journey. Paul’s letters can be broken into two areas. The first is Paul’s letters to local churches and secondly, is his letters to people. This study is designed to examine the writings of Paul and share some basic information about each book.

In this lesson you will discover:

1. Paul’s letters to parishes
2. Paul’s letters to people
3. Paul’s letters and particulars
