“There Can Be Peace in Your Family”

Genesis 33:1-10

Romans 12:18 reads, "Do all that you can to live at peace with everyone." (NLT) This verse records what should be a relationship goal for every child of God. One of the hardest places to maintain peace is among family members. However, through much prayer and effort, harmonious existence can take place between relatives. This lesson is designed to share crucial components that can contribute to peaceful household for kinfolks.
